A Death For Others

Fifth Sunday in Lent

The innocent often demand _____, but the guilty ask for _____ - they reveal themselves.

Jesus tells a _____ that does exactly that.

This parable makes two undeniable claims: Something _____ is coming, and that event will usher in a
_____.

The religious leaders know this passage. They know Jesus is _____ it to them.

They don't deny their _____. They don't dispute their _____.

What enrages them is the thought of losing
_____, of being

This is the fullness of the _____, and the _____ of God.

- Builds relationships with unchurched and under-churched
- Shares the love of Jesus by actions and by word
- Invites and brings others to events, services, classes and groups
- Helps others grow to be more like Christ
- Makes disciples who make disciples
