Abundance of Affliction

Pentecost 25

Two words for today.

Two widows in our readings for today.

from Old French affliction (A.D. 1100's) "act of humility, humiliation, mortification, punishment" and directly from Latin afflictionem "pain, suffering, torment" from Latin abundare "to _____"

What do we think about when we think of affliction?

What do we think about when we think of abundance?

Widow #1 - 1 Kings 17

Because of famine in the land, she plans to feed her son and herself with ground sticks and then die.

Her comment shows that she felt _____.

Elijah - the well-known prophet of God - asks her to give _____ she had to _____.

Widow #2 - Mark 12

Because she was a widow, she had no source of income except _____.

Her offering shows that she felt _____.

Jesus says she gave " _____ that she had to _____."

Both women gave so that they had _____.

Old Testament verses New Testament

OT: Look _____ to the _____

NT: The _____ is _____ _____ consider _____.

_____ seek after _____.

_____ pursue _____.

That is how you become more _____

_____ and have _____

_____.

The treasure in one's heart is the intention of the thought, from which the searcher of hearts judges the outcome. Hence it quite frequently occurs that some persons perform good deeds of lesser importance with a greater reward of heavenly grace. This is because of the intention in their hearts to accomplish greater good if they could. Others, though they display greater works of virtue, are allotted smaller rewards by the Lord on account of the indifference in their lukewarm hearts. The deed of the widow who contributed two copper coins to the temple was preferred to the large contributions of those who were rich by the One who weighs what is within our hearts. -Bede

You may as soon fill a bag with wisdom, a chest with virtue, or a circle with a triangle, as the heart of man with anything here below. A man may have enough of the world to sink him, but he can never have enough to satisfy him. -Thomas Brooks
