Word of Life Family Prayer List

We Thank the Lord...

- for the giants in our lives and how He ultimately destroys them, for Jesus Christ who ultimately gives us an overwhelming victory over all earthly and spiritual difficulties and gives us a victorious life
- for successful surgery for Patty Coffey (Dominguez), Robyn Tate (Stevens)
- for new employment for Nancy Murray and a promotion for Patti Mitschke
- for $526,237 given to our Therefore Go building fund
- for the blessings and resources He has entrusted to our care and His promise to multiply them to build a bigger heaven and better lives.

We Ask the Lord...

- to inspire and empower us to help us see our giants in the same way He sees them and to praise and thank Him as He defeats them
- to bless pastor Chris Holder and Bethel Lutheran as they reach out to people in Dallas and beyond
- to bless our attenders, community, state, nation and world
- to bless all leaders with godly wisdom and move them to lead according to His will
- to bless victims of violence, oppression and disaster
- for peace and justice in Jerusalem, Israel and the Middle East
- for sobriety for those with addictions
- to restore broken marriages, engage unengaged parents, heal broken families, reconcile estranged family members
- for adult children to be faithful and well-prepared for all their needs and to bless a son moving into an apartment
- for the youth in our community, especially graduating seniors

We're only _____!

1 Samuel 17:3-11 (GW) - The Philistines were stationed on a hill on one side, and the Israelites were stationed on a hill on the other side. There was a ravine between the two of them.

The Philistine army's champion came out of their camp. His name was Goliath from Gath. He was ten feet tall. He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he wore a bronze coat of armor scales weighing 125 pounds. On his legs he had bronze shin guards and on his back a bronze javelin. The shaft of his spear was like the beam used by weavers. The head of his spear was made of 15 pounds of iron. The man who carried his shield walked ahead of him.

Goliath stood and called to the Israelites, "Why do you form a battle line? Am I not a Philistine, and aren't you Saul's servants? Choose a man, and let him come down to fight me. If he can fight me and kill me, then we will be your slaves. But if I overpower him and kill him, then you will be our slaves and serve us." The Philistine added, "I challenge the Israelite battle line today. Send out a man so that we can fight each other." When Saul and all the Israelites heard what this Philistine said, they were gripped with fear.

“This monster insults you and God, and you just stand there? Are you just going to let him do this?”

1 Samuel 17:40-44 (GW) - He took his stick with him, picked out five smooth stones from the riverbed, and put them in his shepherd’s bag. With a sling in his hand, he approached the Philistine. The Philistine, preceded by the man carrying his shield, was coming closer and closer to David. When the Philistine got a good look at David, he despised him. After all, David was a young man with a healthy complexion and good looks.

The Philistine asked David, “Am I a dog that you come to attack me with sticks?” So the Philistine called on his gods to curse David. “Come on,” the Philistine told David, “and I’ll give your body to the birds.” (GW)

Sometimes all you see is _____.

What’s your Goliath?

Too often we let the giant _____.

The cost of _____ can be extreme.

The giant does _____ have to win.

Christianity doesn’t wash away _____.

John 16:33 (GW) - [Jesus says,] “In this godless world you will continue to experience difficulties. But take heart! I’ve conquered the world.”

Romans 8:35,37 (GW) - What will separate us from the love Christ has for us? Can trouble, distress, persecution, hunger, nakedness, danger, or violent death separate us from his love? The one who loves us gives us an overwhelming victory in all these difficulties.

1 Samuel 17:45-50 (GW) - David told the Philistine, “You come to me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of Armies, the God of the army of Israel, whom you have insulted. Today the LORD will hand you over to me. I will strike you down and cut off your head. And this day I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army to the birds and the wild animals. The whole world will know that Israel has a God. Then everyone gathered here will know that the LORD can save without sword or spear, because the LORD determines every battle’s outcome. He will hand all of you over to us.”

When the Philistine moved closer in order to attack, David quickly ran toward the opposing battle line to attack the Philistine. Then David reached into his bag, took out a stone, hurled it from his sling, and struck the Philistine in the forehead. The stone sank into Goliath’s forehead, and he fell to the ground on his face. So using only a sling and a stone, David proved to be stronger than the Philistine. David struck down and killed the Philistine, even though David didn’t have a sword in his hand.

Why do we let the giant win?

We’re fighting _____ battles.

David fought _____ battle.

We’re fighting for _____.
