LifeLesson Notes for:

Lie #4: Authenticity Is Everything
Popular Lies

Authenticity is: choose one

- A. "Living your life according to your own values and goals."
B. "Acting in ways that show your true self and how you feel."
C. "Real or genuine: not copied or false."

"Living your life according to your own values and goals" is built upon the foundation of _____ and one's _____ rules and desires.

"Acting in ways that show your true self and how you feel" is built upon the foundation of _____ and one's _____ image and feelings.

"Real or genuine: not copied or false" is built upon the foundation of _____ and _____.

Biblical Authenticity

If I believe in Jesus Christ, I am really a _____ of _____.

John 1:12 (ESV) - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.

If I am baptized into Christ Jesus, I am baptized into His death, my old life has gone and His _____ has come.

Romans 6:1-4 (GW) - What should we say then? Should we continue to sin so that God's kindness will increase? That's unthinkable! As far as sin is concerned, we have died. So how can we still live under sin's influence? Don't you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? When we were baptized into his death, we were placed into the tomb with him. As Christ was brought back from death to life by the glorious power of the Father, so we, too, should live a new kind of life.

The life I live in the body is _____
_____.

Galatians 2:20 (NIV) - I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

My authenticity begins with my _____ and my rising up to new life in Christ as a true child of God.

True or False? Brené Brown in Braving the Wilderness writes, "True belonging is the spiritual practice of believing in and belonging to yourself so deeply that you can share your most authentic self with the world and find sacredness in both being a part of something and standing alone in the wilderness."

Our so-called "authentic self" is _____ always right about morality, sexuality, love and justice and requires submission to the authority of Scripture, denying sinful desires, repenting of worldly behavior and being transformed.

Our true authentic identities are God-determined, not self-determined. – Alisa Childers

Biblical Transformation and Sanctification

Do not conform. _____.

Romans 12:1-2 (ESV) - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Philippians 2:13 (GW) - It is God who produces in you the desires and actions that please him.

Do not conform. _____.

Hebrews 10:10 (ESV) - We have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

1 Peter 1:14-15 (ESV) - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct.

With _____-determined authenticity and _____ - produced transformation and sanctification, we will be humble, repentant, and thankful while becoming more and more like Jesus day by day.

My identity is not what I do, what I feel, who I love, who I'm attracted to, or what I think will satisfy me. My identity is who the Bible tells me I am ... it's who I am in Christ. And his Spirit bears witness with my spirit that "I am a child of God" (Romans 8:16). That knowledge is so freeing because it means that no matter what happens to my physical body or my metaphysical imagination, I am his and he is mine. It means that no matter where I am geographically, what I feel emotionally, what I know intellectually, or what my limitations are physically, I can commune with God and glorify him in whatever situation he puts me in. What freedom. – Alisa Childers
